

Community Resources

Southern Region – Georgia,
Mississippi, Florida, Alabama

Working your way through the maze of resources, advocacy and funding for acquired brain injury can be confusing and time-consuming. This resource sheet was developed to assist you by putting all of the information, by category, in one place. Keep this with your important papers—there is information that may help you today and information that may help you in the future!

Resources for Support, Advocacy, and Programming

- Brain Injury Association of Georgia: <https://www.braininjurygeorgia.org>
- Georgia Advocacy Office: <https://thegao.org>
- Alabama Head Injury Foundation: <https://www.ahif.org>
- Alabama Disabilities Advocacy Program: <https://adap.ua.edu>
- Mississippi Brain Injury Association: <https://www.msbraininjury.org>
- Disability Rights of Mississippi: <http://www.drms.ms>
- Just People: <https://www.justpeople.org>
- Side by Side: <https://sidebysideclubhouse.org>
- Lakeshore Foundation: <https://www.lakeshore.org>

Resources for Funding

- Georgia Brain and Spinal Injury Trust Fund Commission: <https://bsitf.georgia.gov>
- Aging and Disability Resource Center: <https://www.georgiaadrc.com>
- Alabama Department of Rehabilitation Services: <https://www.rehab.alabama.gov/services/vr/tbi>
- Mississippi Dept of Rehabilitation Services:
<https://www.mdrs.ms.gov/SpecialPrograms/Pages/TBISCI-TRUST-FUND.aspx>
- Florida Brain and Spinal Cord Injury Program: <https://www.floridahealth.gov/provider-and-partner-resources/brain-and-spinal-cord-injury-program/index.html>